

We now know how to add and subtract 4- digit number using column method

We carried out a science experiment to identify loudest and quietest part of the school

October Blog- Year 4 Eels

We created wonderful artwork for Black History month inspired by artist Lois Mailou Jones Mural

In ICT we created animated characters and used programming tools to make our character fly, sing and dance

We explored a range of musical, percussion instruments to create sound vibrations

We created outstanding abstract art inspired by Kadinsky's water colours

We continue our musical journey to become expert trombone players

In Big write we wrote a set of instructions about how to keep our trombone teacher happy

