

Off With Her Head !

Write a newspaper report about King Henry VIII's Great Matter and the Reformation.

Imagine you are writing about this after it has happened. Research online any details you are unsure of.

Think about:

- What series of events occurred leading to this event?
- How did one event influence another? What changed? What stayed the same?
- Why is it significant to the people of England?
- Include a snappy headline, by-line, date (relevant to the at time!), orientation paragraph and relevant facts.

Remember: Capital letters, topical vocabulary and punctuation.

Top Tip – Alliteration might help with creating a snappy headline!
