

In Science, we have been learning about the different components of blood. We looked at an artificial blood sample to help us learn more about blood.

May

This month, we had the chance to look at a real life ox heart. We even had the opportunity to dissect lamb hearts as a group!

This month we also celebrated World Cultural Day. We dressed up in our cultural clothes, had a parade and even tried some delicious traditional food!