

The shortest month!

February

Year 5 enjoyed taking part in the school's Story Telling event. We used 'The Secret Garden' as a bases and created a story map and devises actions to help us retell the story opening in detail

Since the last blog, we had a trip to the William Morris Gallery. Here we learned about William himself, his work and designs. We also had the opportunity to create simple prints following some of Morris's methods

