

Dynamic Dynasties

Use a range of sources to find out about the Silk Road. Record your findings and provide information about the Silk Road, its length, the route it took, the countries it went through, items that were traded and the origin of the name.

Home learning is due
Friday 10th
November 2023.

Look online for the pictures of oracle bones from the Shang Dynasty. Use your existing knowledge, information books or the internet to answer the questions:

How were they discovered?

What is an oracle bone?

What were the oracle bones used for?

Why are the oracle bones an important source of evidence for archaeologists and historians to learn about the Shang Dynasty?

Use this to create an information poster.

Use a range of sources to find out about an ancient Chinese achievement, invention or innovation. Record your findings as a leaflet. You may be interested in traditional Chinese medicine, metal working, the Great Wall of China or Chinese writing.